The 14th Annual Family Day Celebration will take place Wednesday from 4 p.m. – 8 p.m. at the Roodner Court Housing Development.

The 12th Annual Family Day Celebration on Friday, Aug. 27, (rain date will be Saturday, Aug. 28 from 3 p.m. – 7 p.m. at the Washington Village Housing Development.

The third Annual Family Day Celebration on Saturday, Aug. 28, (Time TBD) at the Meadow Gardens Housing Development.

The Family Day 2010 celebrations will feature numerous activities including music, food, face painting, games, and much more.

The goal of the Family Day Celebration is to unite families together for a fun-filled afternoon with state and local human service agencies. The hope is to build necessary relationships to support shared values that promote a respect for cultural diversity and awareness around neighborhood concerns such as health and wellness, education, substance abuse, and youth violence.

For information on any of the Family Day 2010 celebrations, volunteering or to make a donation, please contact The Human Services Council at 203-849-1111.
