

Norwalk Citizen

www.norwalkcitizenonline.com

National Volunteer Week to be celebrated

The Voluntary Action Center of Mid-Fairfield (VAC), a program of the Human Services Council, will celebrate National Volunteer Week at its 18th Annual Volunteer Leadership Breakfast on Tuesday, April 20 at Dolce Norwalk Center, from 8 to 9:30 a.m. Stew Leonard's will receive the Corporate Leadership Award in recognition of its generous support and volunteer involvement over many years to our community. Jill Leonard Tavello, executive vice president, will accept the award.

Betsy Bain, a lifelong resident of Norwalk, will receive the Distinguished Service Award for her volunteer service and leadership in both city government and education committees and organizations.

Established in 1974, National Volunteer Week has drawn the support and endorsement of all subsequent U.S. presidents, governors, mayors and other respected elected officials. National Volunteer Week is about inspiring, recognizing and encouraging people to seek out imaginative ways to engage in their communities.

The Volunteer Leadership Breakfast is VAC's annual fund-raising and visibility event. Lead sponsorships are available for $5,000 and $2,500. Table Sponsorships for tables of 10 are $500, and VAC appreciates the early sponsorship support of Benefit Planning Services. Individual tickets are $60. All proceeds will be directed to VAC's work in the four towns it serves: Norwalk, Westport, Weston and Wilton. For sponsorships or tickets, please call Betty Brink at (203) 849-1111.

The Voluntary Action Center of Mid-Fairfield is a source for volunteer recruitment, management, training and recognition and serves more than 150 not-for-profit agencies throughout the region. For information about Voluntary Action Center, call Jan King, Interim Director at (203) 849-1111, visit www.hscct.org/vac or email jk-ihg@hscct.org