

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Help from many helped to make Family Day Celebrations a success

To the Editor:

The Community Prevention Task Force, a program of the Human Services Council, in conjunction with the Roodner Court, Washington Village, and Meadow Gardens Tenant Associations, and the Norwalk Housing Authority would like to thank all the families, friends, dignitaries, and sponsors who came out on Wednesday, Aug. 25, Friday, Aug. 27, and Saturday, Aug. 28, to help make their Annual Family Day Celebrations a huge success.

Family Day 2010 featured numerous activities including a health resource fair, a basketball tournament, music, food, the Norwalk Firehouse and Sparky the Fire Dog, The Magic Genie, balloon sculpting, face painting, games, prizes, a live crab touch tank courtesy of the Maritime Aquarium, arts and crafts, and distribution of backpacks filled with school supplies courtesy of Diageo.

The Human Services Council and the Tenant Associations for Roodner Court, Washington Village, and Meadow Gardens would like to thank the following people who contributed either by volunteering their time or by donating a much needed item: Calvary Baptist Church, Christian Community Action, the Coalition of Norwalk Neighborhood Association, Megan Dancy, Dare 2B Different participants: Mohamad Abegne, Hazel Paulk, Khadijah Scott, Earl Williams, Trey Williams, and Ocean Woods, Diageo (Barbara Sico), Anna Diaz, Senator Bob Duff, Ed's Garage Doors, Lisa Franze, Alexandria Flores, Sylvia Harrell, Norwalk Children's Foundation, State Representative Bruce Morris, N.E.O.N., Norwalk Fire Department, Norwalk Housing Authority and Maintenance Staff, Norwalk Police Department/Community Police Unit, Martha Pace, Daphne Ruffin, St. Vincent's DePaul Pantry, Alex Sajous, Steve Serasis, and Donna Walker..

*Lisa M. Cooper
Human Services Council*